

James started playing bridge in 1999 in Regina, SK and became a life master in 2003 at the age of 19. James has represented Canada at the World level and numerous times at the National level, winning the CNTC-B in 2008. James was also a member-at-large of the Regina Bridge Club Executive for 2 separate terms.

His strengths lay in budgeting, governance, and information technology.

After over 25 years of playing bridge, he is ready to give back to the community that gave him so much over those years.
